

H-WRBI Annual Conference

School of Education

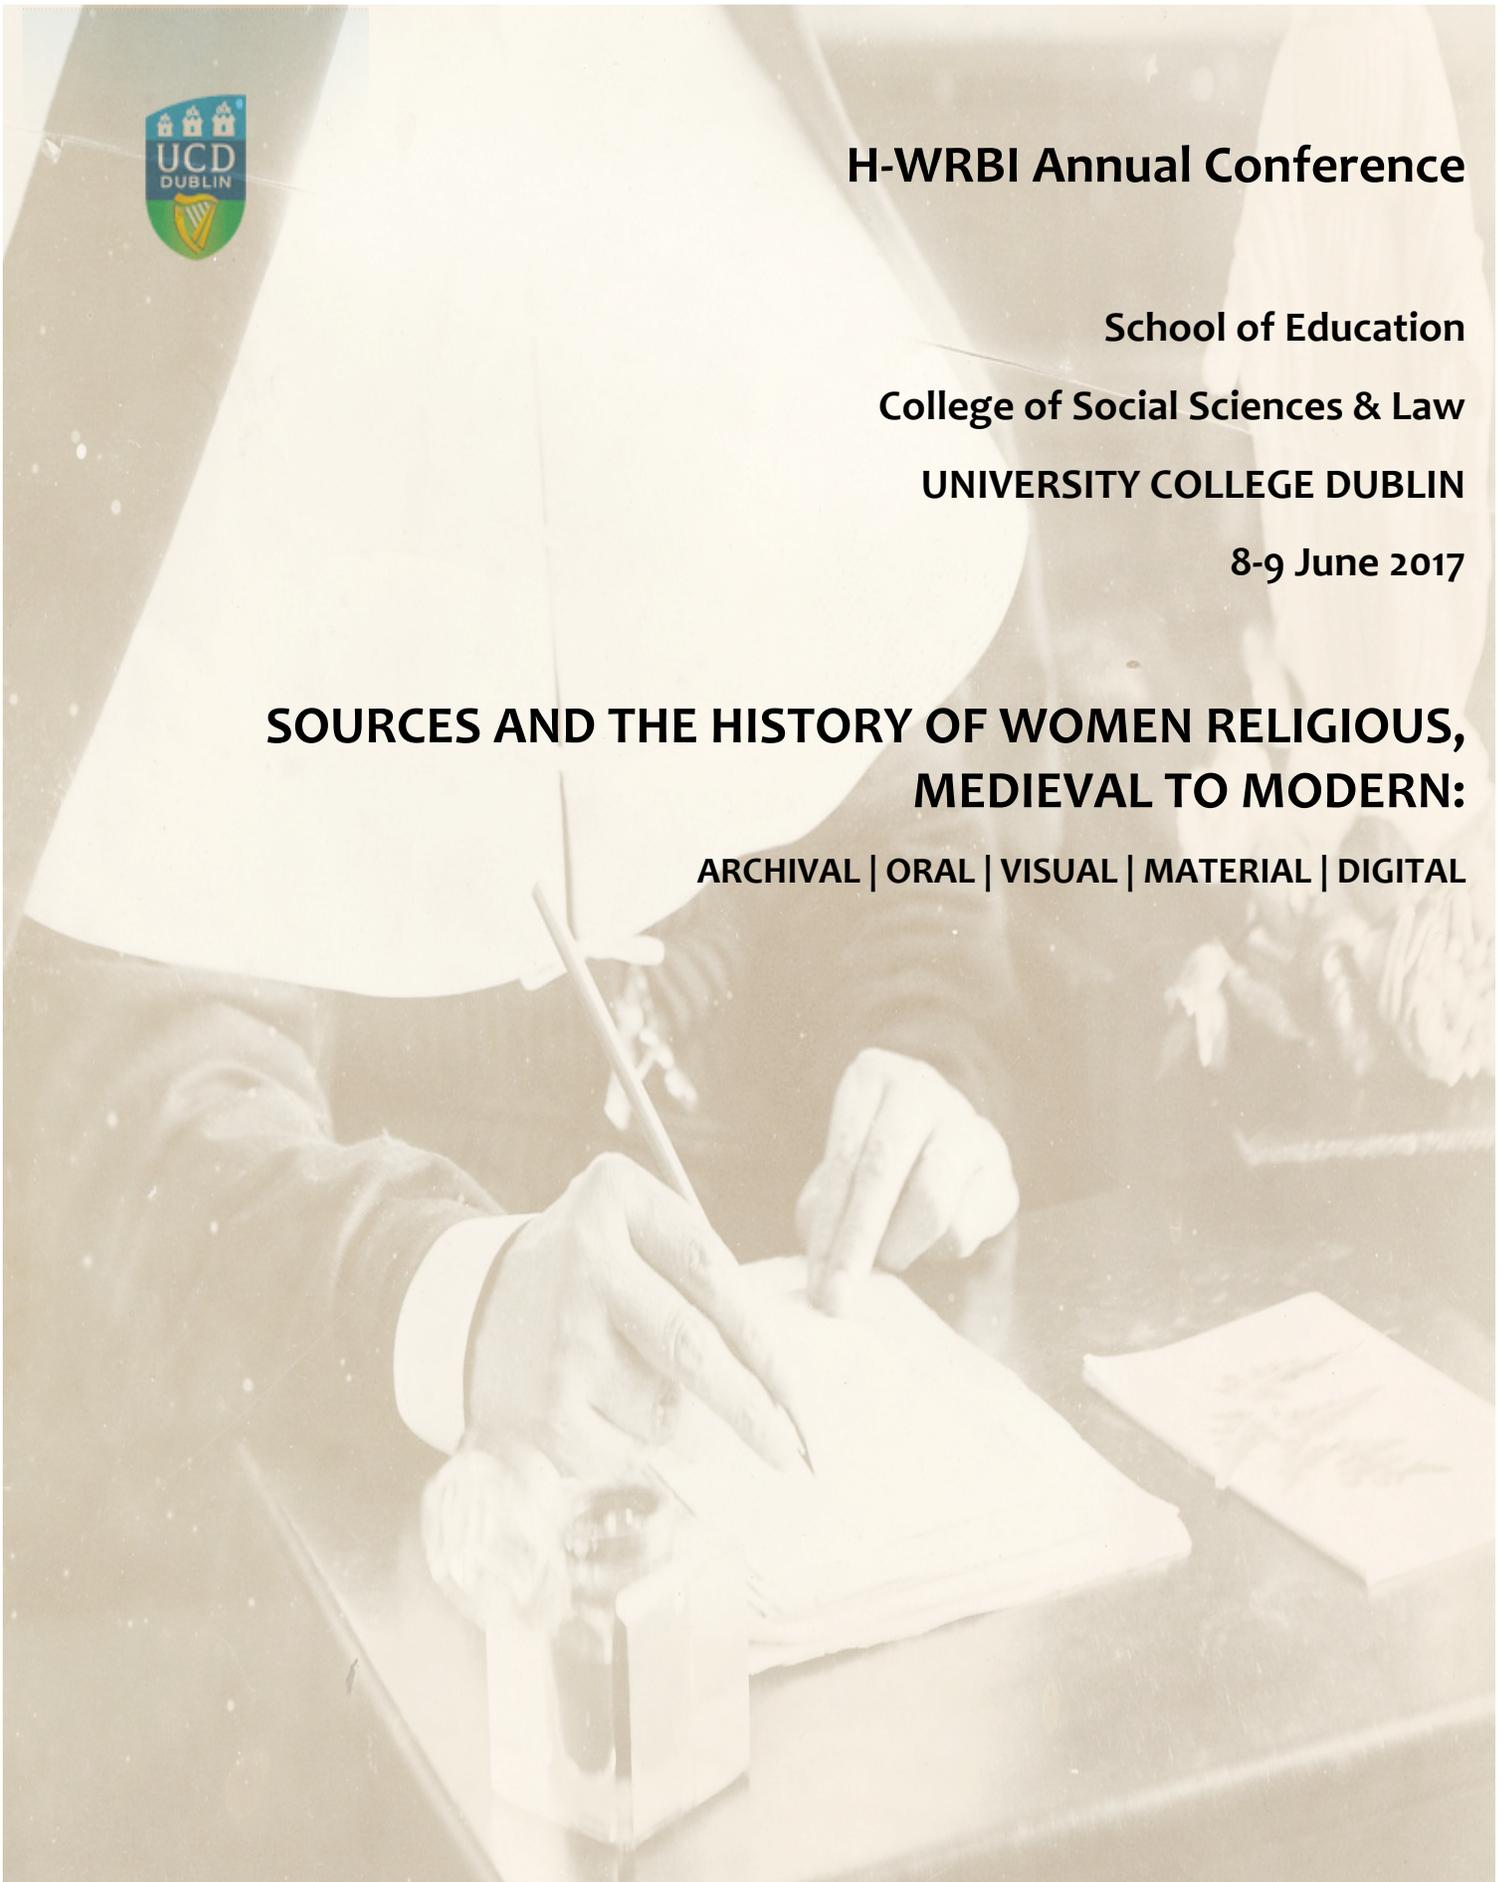

College of Social Sciences & Law

UNIVERSITY COLLEGE DUBLIN

8-9 June 2017

SOURCES AND THE HISTORY OF WOMEN RELIGIOUS, MEDIIEVAL TO MODERN:

ARCHIVAL | ORAL | VISUAL | MATERIAL | DIGITAL

University College Dublin
An Coláiste Ollscoile, Baile Átha Cliath

REGISTRATION FORM

NAME /Title _____

AFFILIATION _____

ADDRESS _____

EMAIL _____

Please tick if you are a student []

I agree that my name, affiliation, email and paper title may appear on the conference literature/ mailing lists YES [] NO [] N/A []

Dietary needs [please indicate]:

Mobility needs [please indicate]:

PAYMENT OPTIONS

Delegates from IRELAND ONLY can pay by cheque or EURO bank draft made payable to SOURCES HWRBI 2017, and mail payment & registration form to: Prof Deirdre Raftery, School of Education, Roebuck Offices, University College Dublin, Dublin 4.

Delegates from COUNTRIES OTHER THAN IRELAND can pay via Eventbrite at <https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/o/history-of-women-religious-of-britain-and-ireland-6412202403>

CONFERENCE PACKAGE A

One day (coffee breaks and lunch included)

Fully-waged €75.00 [] Student/Unwaged €65.00 []

CONFERENCE PACKAGE B

Both days (coffee breaks and lunches included)

Fully-waged € 150 [] Student /Unwaged € 130 []

Accommodation must be booked separately by delegates. A limited number of single ensuite rooms on campus are available at €63.75 per night. Please use this link to book:

<https://ucd.events/?8801068470049785632>

University College Dublin
An Coláiste Ollscoile, Baile Átha Cliath

UCD Campus Accommodation:

<https://ucd.events/?8801068470049785632>

WELCOME TO UCD

Ceada míle fáilte

I am delighted to welcome you to the 2017 H-WRBI Annual Conference. This is the second time that UCD enjoys the pleasure of hosting this conference. We look forward to two days of very stimulating papers that draw on archival collections and sources for the history of women religious. We will also have time to enjoy a relaxing wine reception together at the launch of a new book by our keynote speaker, Dr Susan O'Brien.

We hope you enjoy our spacious suburban campus. UCD is Ireland's largest university, with a ranking in the Top 150 World Universities and a history reaching back over 150 years. With over 130 hectares (325 acres) to explore, UCD campus is a haven for walkers or joggers, and the leisure facilities include a stunning Olympic swimming pool, a cinema and a theatre. If you are staying on campus, you can make use of several cafes, small shops, a chapel, a bar, and a pharmacy.

You might enjoy a browse in the campus bookstore, and if you enjoy Irish writers then we can recommend that you make time to see the WB Yeats exhibition at the National Library, Dublin. Once there, you are in easy walking distance of the very fine National Gallery, which houses an exquisite collection, including Caravaggio's 'The Taking of Christ' which was identified at a Jesuit house in Dublin, in 1990.

While we hope that June 2017 will be sunny in Dublin, we are used to occasional rainfall and cool evenings. Pack a small umbrella or a light raincoat!

Deirdre Rattery, Assoc. Professor

Conference Chair

Travelling to UCD

The conference takes place in the Health Sciences building on the main University College Dublin campus, which is located at Belfield, a 132 hectare site, 4km south of Dublin city centre. Before departing your home, we recommend you take a look at the UCD website, and maps of the campus and surrounding areas. The UCD website can be accessed at: <http://www.ucd.ie/>

Plane: Dublin is served by Dublin International Airport, which is located north of Dublin City Centre. For further information on Dublin Airport and Flights please visit Aer Rianta. There are frequent connecting buses from the airport to the city centre, including a special shuttle service, Airlink which brings passengers directly to Busáras (Central Bus Station, Dublin).

Aircoach: operates a coach service from Dublin Airport to Leopardstown / Sandyford / Stillorgan which passes UCD. Further details available at <http://www.aircoach.ie>

Train: Dublin is served by two main railway stations: Connolly Station and Heuston Station. It is a short walk from Connolly Station to O'Connell Street, where the Dublin Bus numbers 2, 11 and 46A can be boarded for UCD. The route 145 provides a direct route from Heuston Station to UCD via the city centre. For further information please visit Iarnród Éireann (Irish Rail)

Bus - Dublin Bus: Dublin Bus numbers 2, 3, 11, 17, 39A, 46A, 84 and 145 all provide services to the Belfield campus. The 39A terminates within the Belfield campus, and can be boarded from in the City Centre from College Street. The numbers 2, 3, 11 and 46A can be boarded at O'Connell Street. Several additional Xpresso services operate directly to campus during morning and evening peak. For timetable information please visit the Dublin Bus website and search for "University College Dublin"

Aircoach: operates a bus service from Dublin Airport to Leopardstown / Sandyford / Stillorgan which passes UCD. Further details available at <http://www.aircoach.ie>

Bus - Bus Éireann: Bus Éireann provides a nationwide bus service, with most major areas having a regular link to Dublin. The majority of Dublin services terminate in Busáras (Central Bus Station, Dublin) from where it is a short walk to O'Connell Street for connecting buses to UCD. Several Bus Éireann services from the Greater Dublin area directly serve UCD, Belfield Campus during morning peak. For further information please visit www.buseireann.ie

Taxis There are usually an adequate number of taxis in operation in the city centre at any given time. It is possible to hail a taxi from the street, but convenient taxi ranks are located on O'Connell Street, Middle Abbey Street, Dame Street and St Stephens Green.